House to Cylone Affected Victims in AP Under IAY

4356. DR. Y. LAKSHMI PRASAD: Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Government of Andhra Pradesh has urged the Union Government to allocate 2 lakh houses additionally under IAY to provide shelter to the cyclone victims;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether Government has agreed to sanction the above houses to the State for providing permanent shelter to the cyclone victims in the affected areas; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI SUBHASH MAHARIA): (a) to (d) The Government of Andhra Pradesh had intimated that more than 10 lakh houses were damaged (fully/partly) due to cyclones/floods in the last five years and sought Additional Central Assistance under the Indira Awaas Yojana (IAY) for 2000-2001 for two lakh houses to provide permanent shelter to the cyclone victims and pucca houses to vulnerable sections in the cyclone-prone districts and other flood affected areas.

Since funds under the IAY for the year, 2000-2001 was allocated amongst all the States/UTs on the basis of a defined criteria, it was not found feasible to arrange Additional Central Assistance for the construction of additional IAY houses. The State authorities have been informed of this accordingly.
